SUMMARY

Senior Copywriter and Content Strategist who thrives as a cross-functional messaging lead—owning campaigns, internal communications, and UX content across clients and markets. Skilled at building playbooks, templates, and content systems that drive consistency and adoption, and at simplifying complex work through close partnership with design, product, and legal stakeholders.

EXPERIENCE

Content Specialist

HD Supply

August 2026 – Present, Atlanta, GA

- Designed and established HD Supply's B2B content strategy from the ground up, defining content pillars, editorial priorities, workflows, and messaging approaches for external-facing content.
- Develop long-form thought leadership, blog articles, case studies, and brand storytelling materials.
- Built and actively support a centralized content hub designed to organize new and existing resources while strengthening brand authority.
- Partner with product marketing, sales, creative, design, and legal teams to translate business priorities and industry insights into engaging B2B content.
- Create frameworks for blogs, case studies, social extensions, and editorial planning to support consistency when executing at scale.

Data Analyst II

Meta (via Tundra Technical Solutions)

March 2026 – July 2026, Atlanta, GA

- Developed and refined human-language voice synthesis AI models by annotating, auditing, and validating high-volume datasets for accuracy, consistency, and guideline compliance.
- Implemented a standardized data validation framework to ensure dataset integrity and compliance with evolving project requirements.
- Improved labeling quality by identifying recurring errors, applying product feedback, and sharing best practices with peer analysts.

Freelance Copywriter

Freelance

July 2018 – August 2026, Atlanta, GA

- Designed and executed scalable content systems, including voice & tone guidelines, terminology, messaging frameworks, and information hierarchy for Coca-Cola, Kaiser Permanente, Visa, AT&T, and other multinational brands.
- Partnered with product designers, strategists, external agencies, and legal stakeholders to translate complex requirements into clear, intuitive user-facing language.
- Created content that prioritizes clarity, empathy, and compliance with legal and policy requirements.
- Facilitated stakeholder workshops and brainstorming sessions to align teams on strategy, structure, and messaging direction.

Senior Copywriter

WITH

January 2025 – January 2026, Atlanta, GA

- Led content strategy and language design across digital products, platforms, and integrated experiences.
- Served as a primary messaging point of contact across stakeholders and projects, aligning campaign, channel, and communications to ensure consistency.
- Designed attconnectedspaces.com end-to-end in Figma, defining site architecture, creating a scalable page template system, and establishing a customer conversion funnel.
- Established Visa's 'Open & Transparent Communication' playbook (7 modules) to standardize internal communication across teams; paired with a 12-month internal content calendar to build awareness and adoption.
- Evolved Coca-Cola Human Insights newsletter workflow to cut revision rounds by ~50% by improving intake prompts, modular structure, and approval routing.
- Presented strategy and rationale to cross-functional stakeholders; partnered closely with design, strategy, and legal to align on requirements and approvals.

Copywriter

WITH

August 2021 – December 2024, Atlanta, GA

- Wrote and structured UI-adjacent content, product messaging, and digital experiences with a focus on usability, comprehension, and user trust.
- Codified a 6-phase PM process for Coca-Cola NA Marketing and supported adoption with 6 quick-reference templates and 6 illustrated process maps to simplify execution at scale.
- Launched and authored Coca-Cola's Human Insights monthly newsletter, establishing the editorial format and content intake process (12+ issues/year).
- Pitched, wrote, and executed full run-of-show for Coca-Cola 'Masters of Consumer Experience' experiential marketing event in under 48 hours.

- Increased sign-ups by ~15% for PG&E's Microgrid Incentive Program with a 2-part explainer video series that translated program requirements into clear, step-by-step guidance.
